

2022 EHDl Virtual Conference March 13-15, 2022

Sponsorship and Advertising

The National Center for Hearing Assessment and Management (NCHAM) invites you to become a supporter of the 2022 Early Hearing Detection and Intervention (EHDI) Conference, the nation's premier educational and networking event for EHDI stakeholders. The EHDI Conference provides everyone who is involved with EHDI an opportunity to identify areas of concern, promote collaboration, and share best practices. Since 2002, the EHDI Conference has drawn stakeholders and professionals from across the United States.

Early commitments maximize recognition, so please submit your application as soon as possible. We appreciate your support of EHDI and look forward to working with you!

Profile of Attendees

The EHDI Conference draws professionals and parents intent on improving early hearing screening, diagnosis, and intervention systems for infants/young children and their families. EHDI Conference content will be relevant to:

- State EHDI program staff members
- Audiologists
- Physicians and other health care providers
- Families of children who are deaf or hard of hearing
- Early intervention specialists
- Speech-language pathologists
- Advocates
- Representatives from the major organizations working with EHDI programs
- Students

Past EHDI Conferences have averaged about 1,000 attendees, including approximately 200 audiologists, 175 early interventionists, 225 state healthcare and education agency representatives, 250 University faculty and students, 175 family members/parents of children with hearing loss and 75 healthcare/medical providers.
