

Early Intervention to School: Supporting a Smooth Transition

Deirdre Curle

Janet Jamieson

Anat Zaidman-Zait

Brenda Poon

Nancy Norman

Early Hearing Detection and Intervention Conference 2020

Research Team

Deirdre Curle
Washington State Center for
Deaf & Hard of Hearing Youth

Janet Jamieson & Brenda Poon
University of British Columbia

Anat Zaidman-Zait
Tel Aviv University

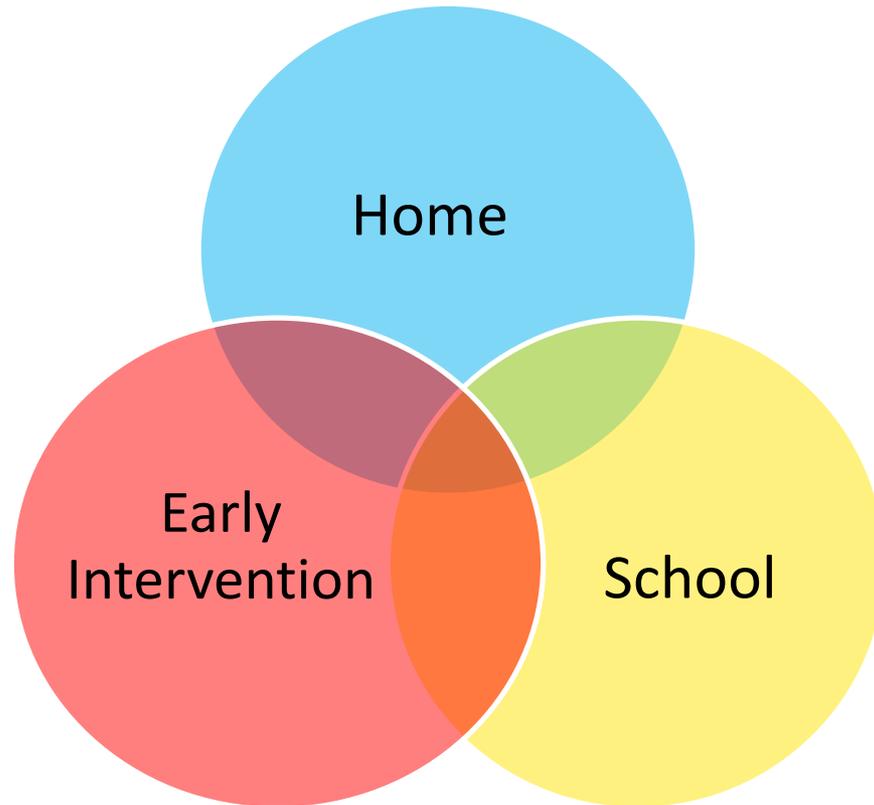

Nancy Norman
Kwantlen Polytechnic University

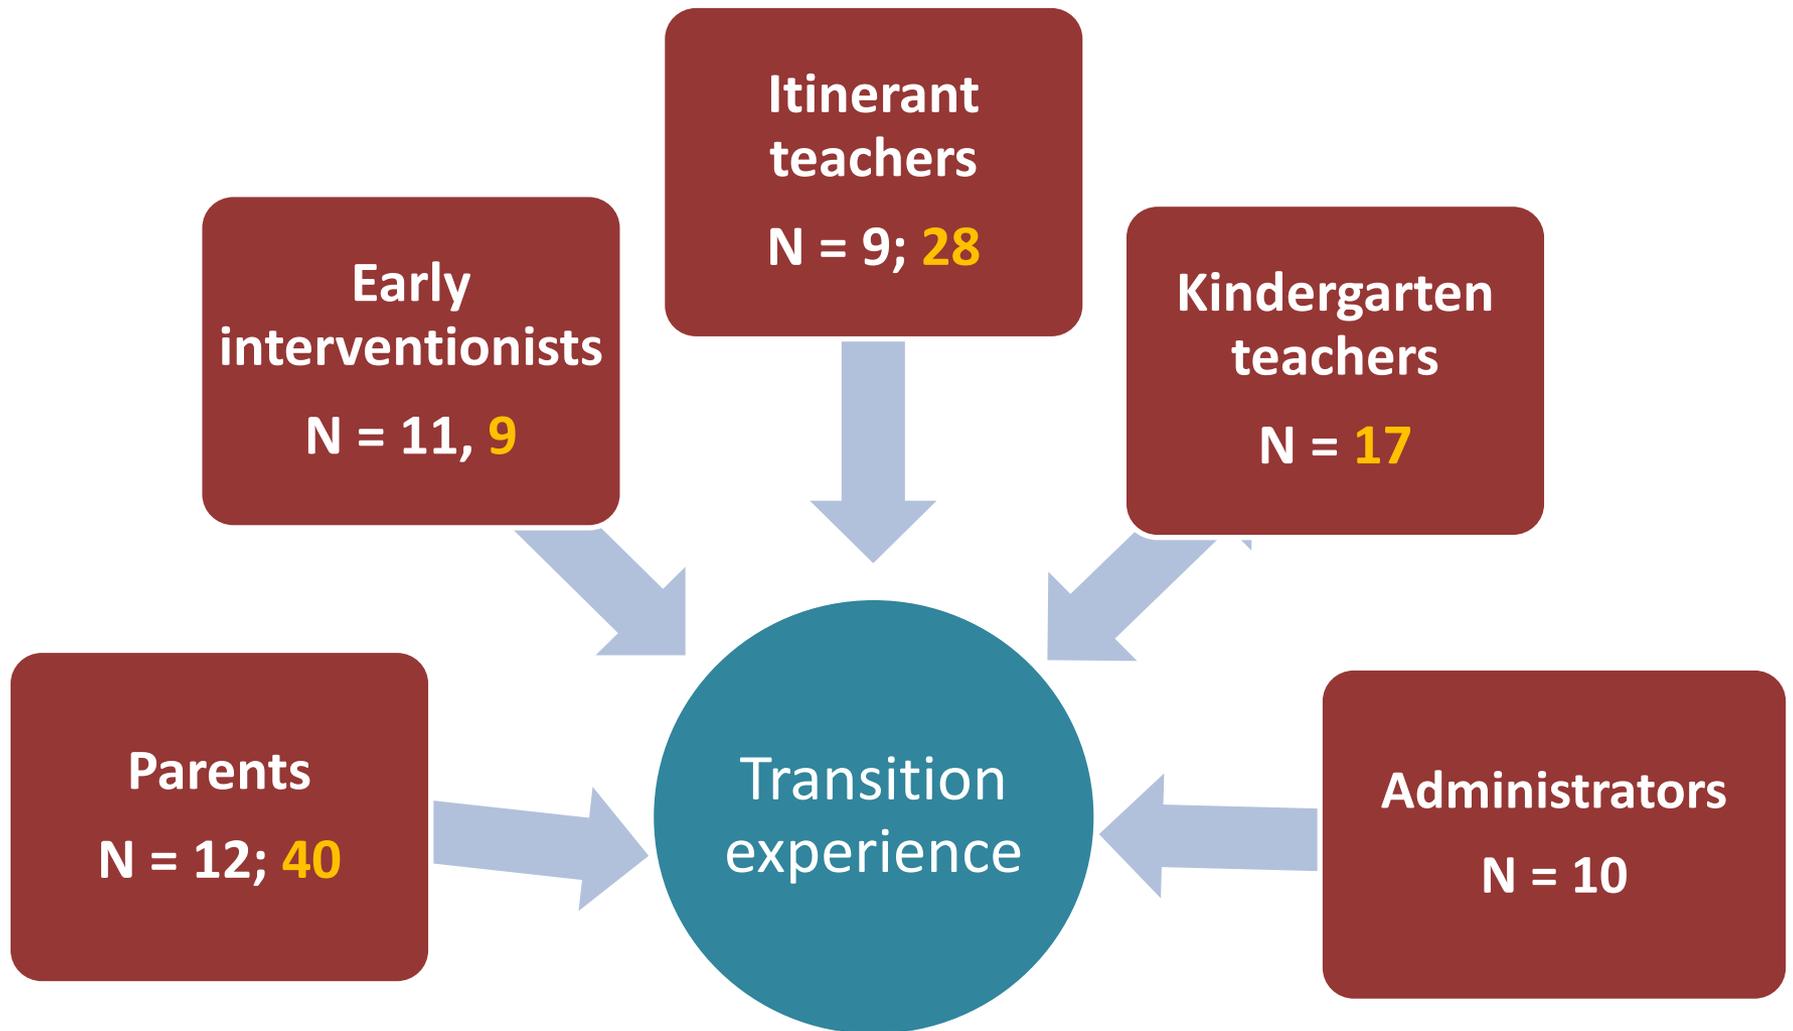

Today we will discuss...

- Facilitators and barriers to parents as their D/HH children transition from early intervention into school
- How early intervention, school districts and parents can support a smooth transition

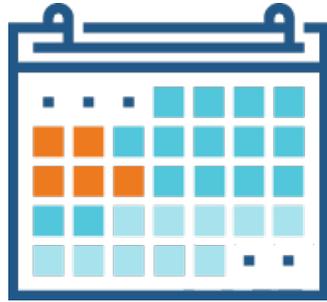

Transition

KEY STAKEHOLDERS

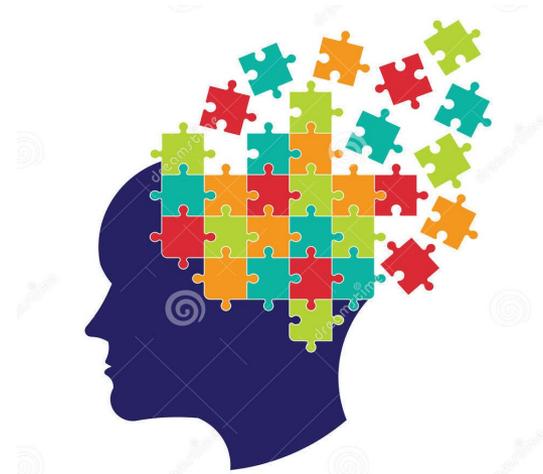

Early Intervention and Home

Start early

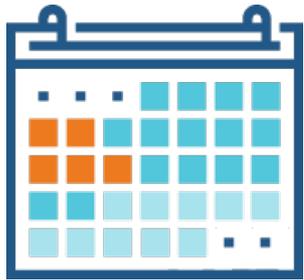

Teach parents advocacy skills

Know the school system

Early Intervention and School

Start early

Send documentation

Key players at transition meeting

School and Home

Personally contact family

Connect family to school community

Prepare school environment

Parent Characteristics

Familiar with school system

Child received specialized care

Information gatherers

Connected with school, EI, and other parents

Overall Findings: Keys to a smooth transition

Positive relationships

Communication

Accurate information

References

- Curle, D., Jamieson, J., Buchanan, M., Poon, B., Zaidman-Zait, A., & Norman, N. (2016). The transition from early intervention to school for children who are deaf or hard of hearing: Administrator perspectives. Journal of Deaf Studies and Deaf Education, 22(1), 131-140. doi: 10.1093/deafed/enw067
- Curle, D., Jamieson, J., Poon, B.T., Buchanan, M., Norman, N., & Zaidman-Zait, A. (2017). Working together: Communication between Stakeholders During the Transition from Early Intervention to School for Children Who Are Deaf or Hard of Hearing. Exceptionality Education International, 27, 54-71.
- Jamieson, J.R., Poon, B.T., Zaidman-Zait, A., Curle, D., Norman, N., & Simmons, N. (2014). Working together for smooth transitions: The move from early intervention to kindergarten for children who are deaf or hard of hearing in B.C., their families, and teachers. [Vancouver, B.C.]: Vancouver Coastal Health Authority.
- Poon, B., Jamieson, J., Zaidman-Zait, A., Curle, D., Norman, N. & Simmons, N. The transition from early intervention to school for deaf and hard-of-hearing children. In Marc Marschark, V. Lampropoulou & E. Skordilis (Eds.), Diversity in deaf education. New York: Oxford University Press.
- Zaidman-Zait, A., Poon, B.T., Curle, D., Jamieson, J.R., & Norman, N. (2019). The transition to school among deaf/hard-of-hearing children: Teacher and parent perspectives. Journal of Deaf Studies and Deaf Education, 24(4), 396-407. doi: 10.1093/deafed/enz027